

DEPARTMENT OF P.G. STUDIES AND RESEARCH IN POLITICAL SCIENCE, P.G. CENTRE, BIDAR.

M.A. (Political Science) course at P.G. Centre, Bidar was established in the year 2007-08 with an intake of 30 students. One staff member from the Jnana Ganga campus along with two guest lectures conduct the classes. Creation of infrastructural facilities and the process of recruitment of teachers is under process. In this respect the University has plans to seek UGC assistance during XI plan period.

- - -

DEPARTMENT OF P.G. STUDIES AND RESEARCH IN SOCIAL WORK, P.G. CENTRE, BIDAR.

M.S.W. course is started in the year 2007-08 at P.G. Centre, Bidar, with an enrolment of 37 students. The teaching programme is conducted by six guest lecturers. The University has plans to improve infrastructural facilities and recruit permanent faculty with the assistance of UGC during XI plan period.

- - -

DEPARTMENT OF P.G. STUDIES AND RESEARCH IN SUGAR TECHNOLOGY, P.G. CENTRE, BIDAR.

M.Sc. (Sugar Technology) course was started in 1996 at P.G. Centre, Bidar. Although initially the student enrolment was promising, subsequently it has declined to zero at present. One faculty member of has been deputed to teach M.Sc. (Industrial Chemistry) at P.G. Centre, Bellary. The University plans to take steps to promote the enrolment of students to the course by seeking the assistance of experts in the field of sugar technology from teaching academic institutions and industries.

- - -

DEPARTMENT OF P.G. STUDIES AND RESEARCH IN URDU AND PERSIAN, P.G. CENTRE, BIDAR.

The M.A. (Urdu and Persian) course has been started in 1998 at P.G. Centre, Bidar. The enrolment of students is poor. Presently, there are five students and all are women. The teaching programme is conducted by the guest lecturers. The University plans to seek UGC assistance during XI plan period for recruitment of permanent faculty and for improvement of infrastructural facilities.

- - -